Academy Worthy Student Fund We need just $45 more to meet our commitment for March! Thank you for your response to our reminders.

Thank you for supporting “The Vegan Alternative” cooking classes this spring. The class reaches many people, even some who don’t enroll! Habib Khahiel, the owner of Yasmeen’s, a new Mediterranean food store on Bay Road, came to the class potluck! We became acquainted with him while exploring the wonderful specialty foods displayed in his store. With several of his suggestions and wonderful help from Brenda and Tony Khalil, we featured a Lebanese meal for one of the class session. “Thank you” also to the many others including class members who help—Jean, Mary B., Ardith, Anneriet, Mary Anne, Joelle, Susan, Kaitlyn, and Kristopher. –Norman and Dorothy

First Sabbath Worship next Sabbath explores the spring season, and looks at metamorphosis—both physical and spiritual—in music, pictures, and the Word.

The “Depression—Live Without It” Seminar featuring Dr. Neil Nedley’s DVDs followed by group discussions begins Tuesday, April 10, at 7 pm, and continues through June 5. We invite you to attend and to let your friends know of this very informative and helpful seminar.

Those wishing to assist Harmen Aerts to attend the fall ARISE program, please put on the offering envelope ARISE. Please make sure it says ARISE, and nothing else.
