Academy Worthy Student Fund Just $192.50 is needed to complete our commitment for this year. It would be good to have it in as soon as possible-before school closes. Graduation will be next weekend! Thank you.

Thank You from the family of A. Jeanette Alford, for all of the prayers, cards, and phone calls of comfort during this sad time. Charles and Ruthella McDonald

Thank You for your prayers, cards, phone calls, flowers, food, and visits after my shoulder surgery. I am feeling much better and am at least able to get out on my back porch occasionally. Physical therapy has begun on my arm, but I still have to keep it immobile at all other times. With the help of family, neighbors, and friends, I'm staying in the game! The Lord is good! Bea Green

Short Mission Trip: I will be attending a Maranatha shortterm mission trip this summer to Ecuador from July 17-30. The goal of the trip is to give each teen an ultimate spiritual workout as well as to build 5 churches in 5 different sites. Along with construction, the trip provides contact-outreach opportunities, VBS, and medical outreach. The cost will be at least $1500 and $825 is due by May 25. Thank you all for your prayers and financial support! ~Amy Nadane~

Women's Ministry Bible Study The Bible study "A Heart Like His," based on David's life, has concluded and today we begin a 6-week video series entitled, "Wrestling With Angels." This series addresses insights into what God has for us when we face life's deep struggles. In compelling conversations, each of the six speakers (including Tony Campolo and Philip Yancey) reflect on processes rather than easy answers to these six questions: 1) How do I know what to do? 2) Why Me? 3) Why don't my prayers get answered? 4) How do I forgive and get on with my life? 5) How can I question and still believe? 6) Why is loving so hard? After each video segment, a Bible study discussion will provide more insight and blessings as we relate them to our everyday life.

Summer Camp forms are in the fover or see Reid Tait. Registration can be done online at www.campausable.org.
