Welcome to Worship Today

We were created to worship God joyfully. If we miss out on enjoying today's worship, it is because we have chosen to be joyless. Let's reverence and praise God's name as we meet together.

Bible Worker Our new Bible worker, Russell Murnighan, has arrived, and we are looking forward to working with him to reach people for Jesus in Midland. If you know people who might be interested in having Russell study with them or who would appreciate a visit, please give Ardith Tait the names and pertinent information for follow up.

Camp Meeting Potluck: Everyone attending camp meeting on Sabbath from our church family is invited to the Susan and Paul Mercy / Norman and Dorothy Moll campsite for a potluck lunch. Both Sabbath's are included.

Camp Meeting Retrospective: On Sabbath June 30 our church service high points of camp meeting will be revisited. If you are at camp meeting even for just one day, please plan to share a personal highlight with our church family. The review will solidify our memories and your testimony may inspire someone else to attend next year.

Sabbath School Third Quarter: Come join the adult class of your choice as the new Sabbath School lessons for the 3rd quarter begin July 1. They are entitled "For Better or Worse" Lessons From Old Testament Couples. We will explore the relationships of such couples as Adam and Eve, Abraham and Sarah, Ruth and Boaz, Ahab and Jezebel, and more. We can glean practical truths that we can apply to our daily relationships with our spouses, one another and with the Lord. If you haven't received a new study guide please request one. The teachers for the 3rd quarter will be Dorothy Dalton, Ann Ratcliff and Dick Schell.
