Announcements

While we are without a pastor, if you have any concerns or questions, please contact the Head Elder, Reid Tait—832-2779.

Elders: Midland and Mt. Pleasant elders are meeting in Mt. Pleasant Sunday night at 6:30 to talk with Conference Secretary, Pastor Jim Micheff, about their wishes and suggestions that would help the Conference in finding us a pastor.

Our Lifestyle Matters—Living Free Seminar continues Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7:00 in the Midland Community Center's 50 Plus Room. We are very pleased with the way people are responding—we counted about sixty people at the first meeting, almost twice as many as we had expected—and the attendees seemed to enjoy the seminar with Vicki Griffin, the conference health educator as the featured presenter. Next Tuesday and Thursday our Jesse Walker, M.D., will be the featured speaker presenting tips on how lifestyle choices can help break bad habits and addictions and improve overall emotional and physical health. We appreciate so much the support of our local church family who attended and your prayers for the success of this outreach program. Materials presented at the seminar can benefit all of us and we encourage you and your friends to join us at the meetings and pray for the program's success. Ardith Tait, Coordinator

Library It is finally here—the wonderful DVD series from Faith for Today entitled, “In Defense of Snidely Whiplash.” You don't have a DVD player? Remember, DVDs will play on most computers. Coming later—new books on a variety of topics.

Religious Liberty Please review the Religious Liberty list in the foyer to make sure everything is correct. If we have overlooked anything, please add it to the list. If you have questions, contact Reid Tait.
