Announcements

A Spanish-American Festival will be held at Tri-City Junior Academy on tomorrow from 1-4:30 pm. Activities will include games, activities, student presentations, food vendors, and other attractions.

Monday Night Bible Explorers will continue their studies on the Gospel of John this Monday, at 7 pm. The class is open to everyone. Refreshments are served at 7 in case you missed supper! This week, we study "Jesus the Illuminator," John Chapter 8.

Living Free Cooking Class attendance is over 50 this session, including many attending for the first time. Thank you to everyone who participated and helped...you were urgently needed and appreciated! This coming Thursday 5:30-7:30, the topic is starch, sugar, and fiber. Fiber, even though it is not digested, turns out to be extremely important for maintaining good health. Do you eat enough fiber? Come and find out.

Missing: The first DVD in the Total Onslaught Series by Walter J. Veith. Norman Moll would like to have this DVD returned so that an excerpt can be shown during the Living Free Cooking Class. Please check to see if you may have borrowed this DVD after it was shown on Sabbath afternoon a few months ago.

Pastoral Vacation Please note that the pastor and his family will be out of town November 1-6. During that time, please direct all non-emergency matters to head elder Reid Tait. If you have a family emergency, the pastor would like to know about it so that he may provide pastoral support during that time of need. Please pray for their safe travel.
