Welcome to Worship Today

"...Think the same way that Christ Jesus thought: Christ was truly God. But he did not try to remain equal with God. Instead he gave up everything and became a slave, when he became like one of us. Christ was humble. He obeyed God and even died on a cross." Phillipians 2:5-8, CEV

Announcements

First Reading: The church board is nominating Mary Anne Walker and Brad Merrills to be assistant leaders in the Youth Sabbath School division for the remainder of the current officer year.

Vespers This Evening will be at 7 pm at the Walker residence, 2632 Pine Oak Court (just north of the intersection of Sturgeon & Monroe Roads). In addition to a short devotional and testimony held by Russell Murnighan, there will be a “media purge” afterward. There will be a great number of items burned or otherwise disposed of because those participating feel that it is not God’s will that they possess them any longer. If you have anything you would like to bring, we encourage your participation. The items include games, game systems, CD’s, movies, books and magazines, but if you have something else, you will be accommodated.

Special Thanks to the Midland SDA Church Family for your love and gifts that were bestowed on us at Micah’s baby shower a couple of weeks ago. Micah is doing well and we are enjoying our experience as new parents. Thank you again for your kindness. We really appreciate it! Marcus & Andrea Peters “Daniel: A Serious Look at the Man and the Prophecy” continues this Thursday at 7 pm. This week, Marcus Peters will present the commentary study covering Daniel Chapter 6. How does the Nabonidus Chronicle illuminate the story of Daniel and the Lion’s Den? The supplementary topic, “Judgment in the Bible,” will explore Biblical examples of God’s process for judgment. Please pray for this outreach, and especially for our friends.

Pastoral Vacation: The pastor and his family will be on vacation, first to Tennessee where Pastor Bentley will graduate from Southern Adventist University tomorrow. They will then travel to North Carolina for some time with family where the pastor will perform a marriage ceremony for his sister on May 15th. The pastor will fly back to be with us on May 13th for the Daniel class and the entire family will return on Sunday, May 16th. If there are emergencies during this time please call the pastor and our head elder Reid Tait. For non-emergency calls during this time please contact Brother Tait.
