Church Service Music. Today's church service piano music is selected from African-American Spirituals in honor of Black History Month (February). These wonderful songs express a deep trust in Jesus. The preparation music invites us to pray "Every Time I Feel the Spirit". The offertory speaks of a chariot swinging low to carry us home to heaven. The powerful postlude reminds us of God's great power to win our battles, just as He won the battle of Jericho.

Chamber music of the British Isles Sunday, February 19, 2012 at 8:00pm in the Staples Family Concert Hall in the music building at CMU. This concert is free and open to the public. Vocal Chamber music featuring multiple ensembles and soloists will be performed.

All are invited to our Saginaw SDA youth Sabbath Feb. 11, 2012. Our speaker will be Eric Rodgers for the morning worship followed by an afternoon session at 2:00 p.m. In the afternoon we will be passing out literature in the neighborhood. Then vespers followed by game night. If you plan on attending, please bring some food for the fellowship meal and for later after vespers, we will need sandwiches. Gary Minnick.

Library If you have been inspired by the series on Reclaiming Your Faith, you may wish to check out Exit Interviews by William Hendricks available on the west wall display. This excellent book not only explores why people leave church, but also gives some solutions in the last two chapters.

Notice Don Ervick is serving as head deacon for the months of January and February. Please direct your questions to him.
