Announcements

Thank you to all who helped out with food for the Praise & Report Sabbath evening meal. Many hands, representing both women and men, definitely made the work load lighter. We served 97 people. Linda Sears

Important Decisions were made at the Church Business Meeting Sunday night March 3rd. Among these were plans to finish the fund raising for the Organ Upgrade and Maintenance project, fund no. 905.1. If you would like to contribute funds to assist with this project, please make your contribution by March 17. It is hoped that work on the organ can begin by the end of April. Thank you to everyone who has supported this project.

This Thursday's All Plant Based Cooking Class will feature the Vegan Potluck prepared by class members, and will mark the conclusion of the current class session. Guest speaker for the evening will be Vicki Griffin, Michigan Conference Health Ministries Coordinator. Vicki will be sharing highlights from her recent evangelistic outreach titled "The Battle for Your Brain." Thank you, our church family, for your support of this outreach through prayers, attendance, and personal ministries offerings.

Beginning Wednesday March 13 the food closet at Saginaw SDA Church hours are changing. It will be open from 9:30-12:30 every Wednesday.

The Financial Peace University Class begins March 21 at 7 pm in the Activity Center of our church. This nine-week class provides a Bible-based curriculum that teaches families how to handle money God's way. Topics that will be covered include dumping debt, retirement, college planning, investing, real estate and mortgages, among many others. So far, 36 people have signed up for the class, including 8 visitors. Interested individuals can still register for the class by visiting midlandsda.org/fpu. The membership kit (which costs $89 + shipping) includes the audio lessons on CD, a member workbook, as well as other useful tools and resources. If you have any questions about the class, please contact Marcus Peters.
