Announcements

The November Citrus Fruit Order can be picked up at the Community Service Center on Carpenter St tomorrow, November 17th. Pick-up times are 10-11:30 am, or 1-3 pm. Volunteers are needed to help unload the truck at 8 am. Please contact Glen Zimmerman (989) 640-5784.

The Church Board Meeting will be this Monday, November 18th, at 6:30 pm.

The Sharing Tree is up with the green and red tags. Please take as many as you want and sign the tag copy in the book with your phone number. Please put your gifts in gift bags and return them under the tree. The instructions are on the tag. If you have any questions, please contact Reid Tait (989) 832-2779.

3ABN's John Lomacang is coming to Cadillac. Come and enjoy the wonderful baritone voice of internationally known singer and performer John Lomacang as he serenades his audience with classic hymns and powerful contemporary music this afternoon at 5 pm at the Cadillac United Methodist Church. John will also be sharing about TV-23, a new television channel that will feature 3ABN programming and will soon be available in the greater Cadillac region.

Scott Michael Bennett will present a spiritual music program as the sermon for our church service next Sabbath. Scott is a well-known Adventist vocal musician who has been featured on It Is Written, 3ABN, HopeTV, Amazing Facts, and Strong Tower Radio. He previously sang at our church in 2009. Please invite your friends to this special church service.

On Sunday December 1 we are hosting a reception in the Activity Center from 12-2 pm to honor the recent marriage of Harmen and Maria Aerts (son and daughter-in-law of Ronny & Anneriet Aerts), who will be visiting from Florida. Please mark your calendars and plan to come meet this newly married couple. They are flying, so please consider gifts that can be easily stored on their return flight. We want to wish God's blessing on this new union. Dick Schell, Elder for Social Activities

This year the Tri-City SDA School Students will present a Christmas cantata, "Sing a Song of Christmas," on Friday evening December 20 at 6 pm at the Saginaw SDA Church.
