Announcements

The service music for today is from early American and Spiritual hymn literature.

Second Reading: position updates - Betty McPherson, Assistant Secretary of community services and Bea Green, Assistant Treasurer.

Deaconess' Meeting There will be a meeting for all deaconesses after church on July 19 in the library. Please mark your calendar if you are a deaconess.

Vacation Bible School: VBS will be July 14-18, 6:15-8:00 pm. There will be a 5 minute meeting in the library for all VBS volunteers immediately after the service today.

Vespers: There are no Vespers scheduled in July.

Starting this Sabbath, July 5, there will be a new Adult Sabbath School class held in the north side of the activity center. It will be a "Basic Beliefs" class specially designed for new believers and new Adventists. Come join for study and discussion in a small group setting as we look at the basic beliefs of Seventh-day Adventism.

Online Computer Class This week's lesson in the series of on-line computer classes for novices is on the difference between the hardware and software. It also covers different operating systems and how to find needed information about your computer's processor and operating system. It can be found at <http://CarolsComputerClass.wordpress.com> Just type that address into your browser window. Future topics will include how to download, browsers, organizing by making folders, viruses and malware, email, how to enlarge the print and many others. If you have questions or suggestions for a future topic, please email them to Carol at Carol.Lanfear@zoho.com

Directory update: Greg and LaRayne Leuenberger have a new email address glleuen@gmail.com
Ann Ratcliff's preferred email is ratcliffa@gmail.com

Six Dow Gardens/Whiting Forest Passes for your use are now in the hall registry stand. Please follow the sign-out instructions on the envelope.
