For Reflection

Jesus knew the wants of the soul. Pomp, riches, and honor cannot satisfy the heart. "If any man thirst, let him come unto Me." The rich, the poor, the high, the low, are alike welcome. He promises to relieve the burdened mind, to comfort the sorrowing, and to give hope to the despondent. Many of those who heard Jesus were mourners over disappointed hopes, many were nourishing a secret grief, many were seeking to satisfy their restless longing with the things of the world and the praise of men; but when all was gained, they found that they had toiled only to reach a broken cistern, from which they could not quench their thirst. Amid the glitter of the joyous scene they stood, dissatisfied and sad. That sudden cry, "If any man thirst," startled them from their sorrowful meditation, and as they listened to the words that followed, their minds kindled with a new hope. The Holy Spirit presented the symbol before them until they saw in it the offer of the priceless gift of salvation.
The Desire of Ages, p. 454

Genuine faith is life, and where there is life there is growth. The life which Jesus imparts cannot but grow more and more abundantly. A living faith means an increase of vigor, a confiding trust, by which the soul becomes a conquering power. He who drinks of the water of life which Jesus gives, possesses within himself a well of water springing up into everlasting life. Though it shall be cut off from all created springs, it is fed from the hidden fountain. It is a perpetual spring, in immediate communication with the inexhaustible fountain of life.
That I May Know Him, p. 227

Additional Announcements

The Slow Down. Peace Lutheran Ministries invites you to a free, special evening of music and poetry with a message of hope by author and spoken word poet Tanner Olson, along with singer-songwriter Matt Doering, at 6:30 PM Thursday, Nov. 12, at Peace Lutheran Church, 3427 Adams Ave. in Saginaw. Called "The Slow Down," the event is a night of poetry, music and meaning – an intentional pause in a world that rarely stops. Led by Olson and Doering, this event invites you to breathe deep, reflect honestly and reconnect with what matters most. Through heartfelt lyrics, honest storytelling and a little humor, you'll be reminded that you're not alone and that hope is still here.

Surviving the Holidays. As a part of Divorce Care, there are two locations where this free evening dedicated to those who have suffered divorce or separation can prepare themselves for the difficult holidays.

- Sunday, November 8, 2:00 to 4:00 at Peace Lutheran in Saginaw.
- Thursday, November 12, 6:00 to 8:00 at Messiah Lutheran in Midland.

For Reflection

Jesus knew the wants of the soul. Pomp, riches, and honor cannot satisfy the heart. "If any man thirst, let him come unto Me." The rich, the poor, the high, the low, are alike welcome. He promises to relieve the burdened mind, to comfort the sorrowing, and to give hope to the despondent. Many of those who heard Jesus were mourners over disappointed hopes, many were nourishing a secret grief, many were seeking to satisfy their restless longing with the things of the world and the praise of men; but when all was gained, they found that they had toiled only to reach a broken cistern, from which they could not quench their thirst. Amid the glitter of the joyous scene they stood, dissatisfied and sad. That sudden cry, "If any man thirst," startled them from their sorrowful meditation, and as they listened to the words that followed, their minds kindled with a new hope. The Holy Spirit presented the symbol before them until they saw in it the offer of the priceless gift of salvation.
The Desire of Ages, p. 454

Genuine faith is life, and where there is life there is growth. The life which Jesus imparts cannot but grow more and more abundantly. A living faith means an increase of vigor, a confiding trust, by which the soul becomes a conquering power. He who drinks of the water of life which Jesus gives, possesses within himself a well of water springing up into everlasting life. Though it shall be cut off from all created springs, it is fed from the hidden fountain. It is a perpetual spring, in immediate communication with the inexhaustible fountain of life.
That I May Know Him, p. 227

Additional Announcements

The Slow Down. Peace Lutheran Ministries invites you to a free, special evening of music and poetry with a message of hope by author and spoken word poet Tanner Olson, along with singer-songwriter Matt Doering, at 6:30 PM Thursday, Nov. 12, at Peace Lutheran Church, 3427 Adams Ave. in Saginaw. Called "The Slow Down," the event is a night of poetry, music and meaning – an intentional pause in a world that rarely stops. Led by Olson and Doering, this event invites you to breathe deep, reflect honestly and reconnect with what matters most. Through heartfelt lyrics, honest storytelling and a little humor, you'll be reminded that you're not alone and that hope is still here.

Surviving the Holidays. As a part of Divorce Care, there are two locations where this free evening dedicated to those who have suffered divorce or separation can prepare themselves for the difficult holidays.

- Sunday, November 8, 2:00 to 4:00 at Peace Lutheran in Saginaw.
- Thursday, November 12, 6:00 to 8:00 at Messiah Lutheran in Midland.